

ABOUT

Adam Aulbach, DVM, DACVP

Vice President, Pathology

Adam Aulbach joined Inotiv in January 2021, bringing more than 15 years of toxicologic pathology experience. He joined our team to help lead the expansion of our clinical pathology and biomarker service offerings. Dr. Aulbach's extensive experience in clinical pathology, and his unique expertise in the area of experimental biomarkers allows us to further develop our comprehensive suite of services.

~15 Years of Experience

Areas of Expertise

- > Clinical Pathology
- > Biomarkers
- > Inflammation/
Immunotoxicology
- > Renal Injury
- > Disease Models
- > Oligonucleotides
- > Large molecules/ADCs
- > Oncology

My Jam

- > Adventure Travel
- > Guitarist/Producer
- > Mentor
- > Being a father

He has held a variety of leadership roles, including scientific director of clinical pathology at MPI Research, adjunct assistant professorship at Michigan State University, and Head of Biomarker Center of Excellence at Charles River Laboratories.

He brings a strong tradition of mentoring and cross-disciplinary collaboration further enhancing the abilities of the rest of our pathology and scientific teams.

